REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Plaintiff JAIME LUEVANO, acting pro se and while a prisoner incarcerated in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Institutional Division, has filed suit pursuant to Title 42, United States Code, section 1983 complaining against the above-named defendant(s) and has submitted a declaration in support of application to proceed in forma pauperis.

Under the "three strikes" provision of the Prison Litigation Reform Act, a prisoner who has had three prior actions or appeals, brought during detention, dismissed as frivolous, malicious, or for failure to state a claim, is barred from further proceeding in forma pauperis in such actions, unless the case fits into the narrow exception enumerated in Title 28, United States Code, section 1915(g). A prisoner who has sustained three dismissals qualifying under the "three strikes" provision may still pursue any claim, "but he or she must do so without the aid of the i.f.p. procedures." Adepegba v. Hammons, 103 F.3d 383 (5th Cir. 1996).

The Court notes that plaintiff LUEVANO has sustained at least three dismissals which fulfill the "three strikes" provision of the PLRA. Cause no. 5:08-CV-107 was dismissed by the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, San Antonio Division, on March 20, 2008, as frivolous and for failure to state a claim, and no appeal was taken; Cause no. 1:07-CV-1026 was dismissed as frivolous by the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, Austin Division, on January 18, 2008, and no appeal was taken; and Cause no. 1:07-CV-1025 was dismissed as frivolous by the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, Austin Division, on January 18, 2008, and no appeal was taken. Additional dismissals which qualify under the three-strikes bar are listed in the Memorandum Opinion and Order issued December 17, 2008 in Luevano v. Medrano et al., 1:08-CV-0426 by the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, Austin Division.

Pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, 1915(g), the Magistrate Judge FINDS plaintiff JAIME LUEVANO may not proceed in forma pauperis in any further new filings or appeals filed while a prisoner unless grounds are argued in a motion for leave which fall within the limited exception enumerated in 28 U.S.C. 1915(g). Even if the instant cause were accompanied by the necessary motion, after careful review of the barely legible and largely incoherent complaint, the Court is unable to discern any allegation of fact showing imminent danger of serious bodily injury.

Because plaintiff has already sustained the "three strikes" and can no longer avail himself of the provisions for proceeding in forma pauperis, it is the RECOMMENDATION of the Magistrate Judge to the United States District Judge that plaintiff's request to proceed in forma pauperis be denied and that the instant cause be dismissed for failure to pay the requisite filing fee.

Permission to proceed in forma pauperis is granted temporarily and solely for the purpose of allowing a Report and Recommendation to issue and be considered by the United States

District Judge.

Plaintiff is advised that if he pays the $350.00 filing fee within fourteen (14) days after the filing date hereof, this Report and Recommendation of dismissal will be withdrawn.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE

The United States District Clerk is directed to send a copy of this Report and Recommendation to each party by the most efficient means available.
